I have the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to approve of the abolition of the Civic Guard centre at Hosahalli in the Bellary District.

The sanctioned strength of the Civic Guards at Hosahalli Centre is one Group Commander and 10 Civic Guards. They are not attending parades and drill and they persist in their absence in spite of persuasion and warnings. They have not been taking any interest in their work. As the village is a small one and the majority of its population consists of weavers, Kurubas and Boyas, suitable substitutes are not available. I therefore consider that the centre at Hosahalli may be abolished.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for Inspr.-Genl. of Police.
